TABLE OF CONTENTS.

ORIGINAL PROSE.

	Page.
Government	2
History. Its influence on the Imagination and Understanding	3
Address to the Public	3
National Rivalship	5
Agriculture	5
Luxury	6
The Archer, No. 1	11
No. 2	15
Popularity	11
Retirement	14
The death of Seneca	14
The Gabbler	19
Search of truth	22
Charity	27
The Wandering Jew	29
	33
	37
	42
	47
Effects of Ill Usage	29
The Moralist, No. 1	39
No. 2	42
No. 3	50
No. 4	58
No. 5	71
Character of Mrs. Woodward	43
Man is the creature of education	46
Life is a blessing or a curse	49
Sorrow	49
Arabian & European literature contrasted	54
Advantages of History	55
Novelty	57
Merit often buried in obscurity	57
Modern Essays	61
Invention of Letters	67
'In doubt to deem himself a God or beast'	70
Miseries of life	75
On Music	78
	81
	87
Instability of earthly objects	79
Genius generally rewarded	81
Influence of customs and manners on society in its progressive state	86
Connexion of refinement with religion	91
Variety of human character and fortune	95
The force of example	99
Natural Society	99
On the advantages of studying human nature	99
Happiness	99
Of the changes in the surface of the earth	102
Of changes in the Political World	103
To the Public	103

SELECTED PROSE.

	Page.
Pupil of nature	1
Letter of Sir Henry Sidney to his son	2
The wonderful boy of Lubeck	6
Antiquities	6
Mr. Emmet	6
Morality	6
Extract from President Nott's address	7
Marcus Brutus	7
Poetry and Statuary	7
Curiosities found in the Historical Herculaneum	7
Character of William Pitt	9
	13
Extract from President Nott's Sermon	9
Apostrophe to the Queen of France	10
Instability of human grandeur	10
Winter Evening	10
The Classic Club	10
Dryden	11
Chinese Literature	11
Ruins of Thebes or Luxore	13
Extract from Cumberland	14
Alexandrian Library	17
Description of Tiranna, a Spanish actress	17
Biography of Curran	18
	22
Charles Marquis of Rockingham	19
The Moallakat	22
Miscellaneous	23
Decision of character	25
	30
Aerostation	26
Character of Sir William Jones	26
Imagination	27
Education	27
Dissipation	30
Disputes	31
Extract from the Miseries of Human Life	31
Extract from St. Pierre	33
The distresses of a modest man	34
Popular Talents	35
Cowper	35
Tacitus	35
Burke's argument against the charge of inconsistency	35
Immateriality of the soul	37
Patriotism	37
Manners, &c. of the Spanish people	38
Religion	38
Julius Cæsar	39
Cicero and Cato	39
Caligula	39
Advantages of Civil War	39
Causes of suicide among the antients	39
A mild temper	39
The character of Edmund Burke	41
	45
Humorous extract from Cumberland on a play of Goldsmith	41
Character of Dr. Johnson	42
Extract from Robert Burns	42
Character of Goldsmith	46
A meditation upon a broomstick	46
Extract from Burns	46
Maxims	46
Controversy	50
Mankind	51
Resolutions when I come to be old	51
Burke
Literary Intelligence	51
Letter of Mr. Pope to the Duke of Buckingham	53
Vanity of human science	54
That there is an art of the bathos or profound	54
A receipt to make an epic poem	58
The genius of Shakespear and Milton contrasted	59
Temperance	59
Address of Dr. Dodd	61
Letter Writing	62
Luxury	63
A letter written by the Ambassador of Bantam, &c.	63
Anecdote of Pope	63
The Taylor and his work	63
Inscription on a sign board	63
Golden era of Roman literature	65
Sir Bertrand	66
Of oriental learning and philosophy	69
Secret correspondence	70
From the Studies of Nature	70
Extract of an address before the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts	73
Original Letter of Burns	74
From St. Pierre	75
Origin of Roman Literature, &c.	77
Letter of Doct. Johnson to the Earl of Chesterfield	77
Of frequenting places of amusement	78
Dissipation leads to ruin	78
On the knowledge of the human character	78
Character of Mr. Fox	82
	85
Pride	83
Merriment	83
Virtue necessary to happiness	86
Extracts	87
Of the Grecian Philosophers	89
Of the Grecian Dramatic Writers	89
General character of the Greek writers	90
Criticks	90
The Nose, Eye, and Mouth	90
Description of an Astrologer	90
Merriment	91
Character of Camoens	93
Dante Alighiery	93
Character of the Spanish and Portuguese	94
Tribute to Greatness	94
Merriment
The adventures of Scarmentado	97
	101
An essay on modern novels	98
Psalmanazar	98
True Religion	102
Cards	102

ORIGINAL POETRY.

The lonely cottage	4
The effect of time	8
Wisdom	8
Lines to Amanda	12
On the death of a friend	16
Friendship	32

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

	Page.
Addreſs to Fortune	56
'My only claim's an honeſt heart'	60
Inſtability of Grandeur	88
Ode for Independence	92
Do. do.	92
Home	96
To Maria	100

SELECTED POETRY.

The Exile	4
To the Dean of L—d, on his obſerving that the men of this age are averſe to matrimony	4
A prodigy indeed	4
The wiſh	8
The common lot	8
True province of women	8
The Orphans	12
The field flower	12
On Huſband's Poems	12
The ſnow-drop	16
The taſte of the times	16
To the opulent	20
Addreſs to a village church	20
A celebrated drinking ſong	20
A cure for impudence	20
A modern ſonnet	24
Date Obolum Beliſario	24
Invocation to Poverty	24
The ſtorm	24
Addreſs to Miſs C. F.	24
Ode to ſuperſtition	28
To W—— C——, Jun.	28
Picture of Man	28
The humming bird	32
Erin	32
Extract from the Lay of the laſt Minſtrel	32
The Lyre	36
A Portrait	36
On Courtſhip	36
Glee	36
Madneſs	40
The Swallow	40
The Belles	40
Lines written by a young man on his paſſage down North river, to the States Priſon	44
The faithful friend	44
Song	44
Corinna's Epitaph	44
"Behold alas! our days we ſpend," &c.	44
Remonſtrance	48
The Cotter's Saturday night	48
	52
Happineſs	48
Quin's Soliloquy	48
The Doves	52
Song	52
Popular applauſe	56
Domeſtic Happineſs	56
True Greatneſs	56
Addreſs to Poverty	56
Azid	56
The roſe-tree, the gardener, and the ſhrubs	60
The opening of the ninth book of the Henriad	60
The Roſe	60
To the violet	60
Epitaph	60
Athlone Caſtle	64
To a young lady	64
Shepherd's Song	64
The Farmer's blunder	68
Extract from Othello	68
Inſcription, &c.	68
Lines on Mr. Foot	68
From Mons. Catin	68
On the ſtatue of George III.	68
On reviſiting the cottage of Roſa, in early ſpring, &c.	72
Plato's advice	72
The eaſy chair	72
Evening	72
Giles and his wife	72
The old Beggar	76
Extract from Scott's Lay of the laſt Minſtrel	76
The Storm	76
Parody	76
Inſcription for a Bower	76
To Adverſity	80
The Miſanthrope	80
The Maid's Soliloquy	80
Retirement	80
A Character	80
Poetry by Curran	84
Verſes written among the ruins of Shelburne	84
The diſconſolate Sailor	84
The Garland	84
The importance of five minutes	84
The Gamekeeper's return at night	88
Tomorrow	88
The Gipſey Wanderer	88
Epigrams	88
The oak of our fathers	92
Song	92
From the Caſtle in the Air, &c.	96
Stanzas	96
To Night	96
Sonnet	96
From a manuſcript of the late Benjamin Pratt, Eſq.	100
Will the Maniac	100
Arabian Song	100
The Recluſe	104
Softly—from Hafez, the Perſian Poet	104
Caroline	104
The Mourner	104
Deſcription of Arabia	104
Epigram	104